2nd Season of Great Midwest Football

Great Midwest football starts the second week of the second season in conference history with seven of the eight teams in action. Four teams will play at home with those games broadcast live on the Great Midwest Digital Network (GMDN), which is available for viewing on Apple TV and Roku.

League Notes

- After three teams comprised the league in 2016, the Great Midwest increased membership numbers to eight football-sponsored institutions. Alderson Broaddus, Kentucky Wesleyan and Malone, battled it out for the inaugural G-MAC Championship as AB prevailed against KWC in the clinching game. New to the league this year are Findlay, Hillsdale, Lake Erie, Ohio Dominican and Walsh. Tiffin will join the Great Midwest for the 2018 season.
- The Great Midwest went 2-5 during the second week of the regular season as Hillsdale and Kentucky Wesleyan each won at home. All eight of the Great Midwest institutions are back on the field for Week 3 with three games streamed on the Great Midwest Digital Network.
- Hillsdale is the lone Great Midwest school to receive votes in the AFCA Coaches Poll (Sept. 11); The Chargers are a perfect 2-0 after coming back from 17 down to defeat former GLIAC opponent Michigan Tech.
- The Great Midwest is competing as part of NCAA Super Region I along with the Mountain East Conference (MEC), Pennsylvania State Athletics Conference (PSAC) and Northeast-10 Conference (NE-10). Each Super Region will get allocated bids to the NCAA Division II Football Championship.
- Hillsdale's Danny Drummond and Ohio Dominican's Austin Ernst were nominated for the 2017 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team.
- Keelan Cole, formerly of Kentucky Wesleyan, made Great Midwest history as the first conference player to make the 53-man roster. Cole latched on as an undrafted free agent with the Jacksonville Jaguars and will start the regular season No. 4 on the depth chart behind Allen Robinson, Marqise Lee and Dede Westbrook. Cole was targeted twice from quarterback Blake Bortles in Jacksonville's Week 1 win against Houston. Robinson suffered a season-ending injury that elevated Cole to No. 3 on the depth going into Week 2 against Tennessee.
- All Great Midwest home games will be streamed live on the Great Midwest Digital Network (GMDN) courtesy of Stretch Internet.
