2nd Season of Great Midwest Football

Great Midwest football starts the ninth week of the regular season with another full slate of the conference games streamed on the Great Midwest Digital Network, which is available for viewing on OTT apps like Apple TV, Roku and Amazon Fire Stick. Findlay takes the field as the conference's first nationally-ranked team in a Thursday-night affair against Malone in Canton at the Hall of Fame Stadium. Alderson Broaddus, Kentucky Wesleyan and Walsh, are each home teams for Week 9 on Saturday.

League Notes

- After three teams comprised the league in 2016, the Great Midwest increased membership numbers to eight football-sponsored institutions for 2017. Alderson Broaddus, Kentucky Wesleyan and Malone, battled it out for the inaugural G-MAC Championship as AB prevailed against KWC in the clinching game. New to the league this year are Findlay, Hillsdale, Lake Erie, Ohio Dominican and Walsh. Tiffin will join the Great Midwest for the 2018 season.
- Findlay is ranked fourth in the first edition of the NCAA Super Region One Rankings; the Oilers are also ranked 22nd in the latest AFCA National Top-25 Poll.
- The Great Midwest compiled a 7-21 record through the first five weeks of the season against non-conference competition.
- The Great Midwest is competing as part of NCAA Super Region I along with the Mountain East Conference (MEC), Pennsylvania State Athletics Conference (PSAC) and Northeast-10 Conference (NE-10). Each Super Region will get allocated bids to the NCAA Division II Football Championship.
- Hillsdale's Danny Drummond and Ohio Dominican's Austin Ernst were nominated for the 2017 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team. Malone's Jon Zimmerly was just announced as a semifinalist for the William V. Campbell Award, presented to the most outstanding scholar-athlete in football.
- Keelan Cole, formerly of Kentucky Wesleyan, made Great Midwest history as the first conference player to make the 53-man roster. Cole has eight receptions for 111 yards so far in his rookie season. Findlay's former defensive back Harold Jones-Quartey was signed as a free agent by the New York Jets to the practice squad on October 19.
- All Great Midwest home games will be streamed live on the Great Midwest Digital Network (GMDN) courtesy of Stretch Internet.
